Community Coalition on Reading, Identification and Early Intervention for Struggling Readers, and Dyslexia Awareness

Next Meeting: November 14th, 2018
Time: 4:30 PM
Location: Oliver Wolcott Library

During our next meeting we will discuss how we can support readers at home (apps, evidence based workbooks, games etc.). We will also talk about warning signs and what can be done if you know a child that is struggling to read.

Please join us. All are welcome.

Coalition Objective: To bring together all stakeholders (parents, teachers, library staff, educators, legislators, etc.) to launch programs through libraries and other venues to support, inform and create solutions so that children who learn to read differently are identified as early as possible and taught in ways that they can learn. To inform parents and community members of evidence based methods and empower them to be part of the solution. To help all readers before they hit the wall of failure. To create partnerships between stakeholders in the community to create achieve our goals.

Meetings: All are welcome - meetings at Oliver Wolcott Library.
Upcoming Meetings: Wednesday November 14th at 4:30 and Wednesday, December 19th at 4:30
